Biography / Administrative History

Jack Rogers was a Presbyterian theologian, and moderator of the 213th General Assembly in 2001. He was born Jackie Bartlett Rogers in Lincoln, Nebraska, January 23, 1934. Rogers attended the University of Nebraska, and completed the Master of Divinity at Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary in 1956. Sharon Mangold of Omaha, Nebraska, married Jack on July 6, 1957. Rogers taught at Westminster College (New Wilmington, Pa.) from 1957 to 1971, and at Fuller Theological Seminary (Pasadena, Calif.) from 1971 to 2000. Rogers wrote two books addressing the conflict among evangelicals over Biblical infallibility: Biblical Authority (1977) and The Authority and Interpretation of the Bible (1979). He served on the UPCUSA Task Force on Biblical Authority and Interpretation from 1980 to 1982, and helped develop A Brief Statement of Faith, which was ratified by the 1991 General Assembly. Rogers was elected moderator of the 213th General Assembly in 2001. For the next ten years, Rogers worked for full inclusion of LGBTQ Presbyterians in ordination and in marriage; his chief contribution was the book Jesus, the Bible, and Homosexuality (2006). He died 13 July 2016.
